CHESAPEAKE BAY SLEEP SOCIETY
Annual Meeting, December 11, 1992, Baltimore, MD

Note: There will be two special presentations:

1st: Carol Everson from the Psychobiology branch of NIMH/NIH.
Topic: Profound sleep deprivation and death in the rat.

2nd: Avi Kami from Neuropsychology laboratory at NIMH/NIH and the Wiztman Institute of Science in Rehovot, Israel.
Topic: REM sleep enhances memory?

2:00 Carol Everson. Physiological effects of sleep deprivation in the rat.

2:45 Thomas Ball Award for Excellence in sleep research.

3:00 Break

3:15 Ian Wicker. EEG defined insomnia and hypnotic ability.

3:30 Charles Morin. Psychological Management of Insomnia, clinical replication series of 100 patients.

3:45 Avi Kami. REM deprivation and the probe for consolidation of human skill learning.

4:15 Catesby Ware. A REM enhancing anti-depressant.

4:45 Sam Potolicchio. Bizarre behaviors during sleep.

5:00 Richard Allen & David Krausman. Eye blink rate decrease is a leading indicator of sleepiness.

5:15 Reception, Asthma and Allergy Center atrium